Day 7 - San Sebastian

Though you won't find canaries here you will find people who can whistle like them. Whistled speech helped shepherds communicate across the steep ravines and in the lush cloud forest of Garajonay National Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Columbus paused here on all three voyages so you are in good company as you explore historic San Sebastian, but with all the natural beauty around you will find your gaze drawn inexorably up the terraced hillsides and across to view of Mount Teide.

Day 8 - Lanzarote

Nature is the star on this small volcanic island. Enjoy the afternoon on the beach or follow the island's famous wine trail, tasting as you go. This, the most northerly of the Canary Islands, welcomes you with laid-back hospitality and genuine warmth. This region of petrified lava makes up the National Park of Timanfaya and its Mountains of Fire, where visions of a lifeless, prehistoric earth with enormous craters of an incandescent red colour can be seen on a bus or even a camel tour.
