Walk through beautiful remote native rainforest that has never been cleared, it is still in its original state as it was before man stepped foot on the land

Get up close to stunning roaring waterfalls as they cascade down steep, sheer cliffs

Fish for grouper and other big species in the bountiful waterways of this pristine area

Walk to the most South-Western Lighthouse in New Zealand at Puysegur Point. The lighthouse was the last manned lighthouse in New Zealand, only becoming automated in the last few years.

Walk through mature rain forest on Anchor Island in Dusky Sound, which is now used as a safe haven for endangered birds such as Saddleback and the Kakapo

Visit the Historic remains at Tarawera Silver mine smelter. Like many of the area's landmarks this is only accessible by boat

Visit Pigeon Island where New Zealand's first conservationist Richard Henry lived for 13 years from 1894. Learn all about his efforts to change Resolution Island into a pest free haven for native birdlife
