ITINERARY

Day 1 - Saturday SPLIT – ROGOZNICA or PRIMOŠTEN

Departure from Split harbour at 13:00, late arrivals can join in Rogoznica. Lunch on route after which we stop for an afternoon swim in a quiet bay. Overnight in Rogoznica, or in Primošten, depending on the situation in port - both are charming and picturesque small villages that offer many restaurants and bars. Do try the famous Babić wine, made locally. (L)

Day 2 - Sunday ROGOZNICA or PRIMOŠTEN – KRKA WATERFALLS (SKRADIN) - ŠIBENIK - VODICE

During breakfast, the journey continues towards the Krka National Park (entrance fee 15 - 27 EUR per person to be paid on the spot). Discover the beauty of the Krka National Park and the small access port of Skradin, where the flora and fauna are exceptional. Lunch on board with spectacular views of the Krka Canyon as we sail by on the way towards Šibenik. Free afternoon with optional sightseeing of this historic town. Above the town centre, there's a castle and numerous historic buildings with Foscolo Palace, the perfect example of Gothic style while the church of St Lawrence is in Baroque style. Overnight in the popular resort of Vodice, a lively place in the high season. Many local restaurants and cafes have lovely terraces with sea views. Enjoy these or take a stroll along the wonderful beaches of this typical Dalmatian town. (B,L)

Day 3 - Monday VODICE - KORNATI/SALI

Today, visit the Kornati National Park (entrance fee included) which is actually made up of 100 islands and reefs. This is really something remarkable to see as inlets on some islands descend steeply into the sea, a hundred meters deep in places, and are dramatically razor sharp. The islands are rich in fish and cultural and historic remains. There are ruins of the old Illyrian fortress, Roman villas, the old Christian church of St. Mary and medieval fortresses and settlements among these islands. Overnight on Dugi Otok (Long Island). (B,L)

Day 4 - Tuesday SALI - ZADAR

Morning reserved for swimming. Departure for Zadar in the afternoon where we spend the night in the port. Here you have a possibility to join guided tour of the city with English speaking guide. For centuries the metropolis of Dalmatia, and today the centre of the region, Zadar has been a city rich in monumental heritage of world importance visible at every step even today: the Roman forum dated to the 1st century AD, the church of St. Donatus dated to the 9th century AD - the most famous Medieval basilica and the symbol of the city, the mighty city walls with representative Port and Land gates from the 16th century AD, and numerous palaces, villas and other monumental heritage. The town is full of great restaurants packed in the center and already mentioned historical monuments that can be found in and around the city - of special interest is the famous Zadar Sea Organ and "The Greeting to the Sun" light installation. (B,L)

Day 5 - Wednesday ZADAR - ZLARIN

Today we head back along the Dalmatian coast. Stop for a swim in one of the beautiful bays. Overnight at a village on the tiny island of Zlarin in the Šibenik archipelago. (B, L, CD)

Day 6 - Thursday ZLARIN - TROGIR

Depart after breakfast with a swimming stop in one of the beautiful bays. After lunch cruise to the old Dalmatian town, Trogir (Greek relief from 4th century was found here). Trogir is sometimes referred to as "miniature Venice" or a floating museum town - as it has a masterful architecture. The old town is a UNESCO heritage site and there's a great choice of bars and restaurants. Overnight in Trogir. (B,L)

Back to Split Riviera with a whole day of swimming ahead! Stop in one of the bays on the Dugi Otok island (connected to Trogir by a bridge). In the late afternoon we continue toward the last port of call while enjoying the magnificent view of Split Riviera. Join our optional guided tour of Split with an English speaking guide. Split is a monument city under UNESCO protection that belongs not only to Croatian people, but to you as well because it is in the world heritage. Here we find an abundance of Roman architecture - of special interest is the Diocletian palace. Overnight in Split. (B,L)

Day 8.

Early breakfast and time to say goodbye to the crew and all your new friends! (B)
